The screenshot shows a web browser window with multiple tabs open, including "The 40 Best Sports Movie", "Admin | Demco Software", "Wandoo Reader", "West Hartford - Children", "Wandoo Reader", "books - Google Search", and "Bailey". The address bar shows the URL: <https://wandooreader.com/westhartfordlibrary/libraries-rock-summer-2018>. The browser's toolbar includes various extensions like Apps, gmail, Pinterest, GoodReads, calculator, WHPL, Outlook Web App, WhenToWork, StoryBlocks, hotmail, LibraryInsight, B&T TS360, Bookmarks, Goodreads, PB, nutmeg workspace, amazon, Encore, intranet, and Midwest Tape.

The website itself has a dark grey background with a geometric pattern. At the top left, there is a logo that says "LIBRARIES ROCK!". Below it, there is a navigation bar with "HOME" and "AWARDS" buttons. A "SUBMIT LOG" button is also visible. A "CURRENT CHALLENGE" section is titled "COME TO A LIBRARY MUSIC PROGRAM" and features a colorful illustration of musical notes and a heart. A "CHANGE CHARACTER" button is located near a cartoon character of a Native American figure playing drums.

A prominent white pop-up window in the center of the screen displays the message: "YOU WON A PRIZE!". It includes an illustration of a box of fireworks and text that reads: "You logged your first book! Stop by the library to get a book mark and your first raffle ticket! Keep reading!". The pop-up has "CLOSE" and "VIEW" buttons at the bottom.

The bottom of the browser window shows the Windows taskbar with icons for various applications and the system clock indicating 4:11 PM on 5/21/2018.

This is what the book log in screen looks like. Here is where you can check the list of books you read this summer
